EnviroGuard™

Providing a safe and responsible return of personnel to the workplace, with full assurance of a clean, germ-free environment preventing risk of infection 24/7.

Assured & Validated - We put Science to Work.

The EnviroGuard™ antimicrobial treatment applies a permanent mono-molecular layer which prevents infection by creating a double protective barrier between surfaces and hands. This mitigates the risk of cross contamination and the spread of infection. EnviroGuard™ is the first line defence in infection prevention and eliminates pathogens from treated surfaces and hands.

The Science of EnviroGuard™ Microbe Shield Antimicrobial Surface Transformation

- ✓ Designed to provide a protective layer that permanently bonds to surfaces
- ✓ Prevents cross contamination between surfaces and hands
- ✓ Mitigates the risk of infection transmission within the workplace
- ✓ Creates positively charged barrier of microscopic pins that ruptures negatively charged microorganisms with lethal effect

EnviroGuard™ process

- 1 Bioclean and disinfection to remove surface contaminant and biofilm
- 2 Electrostatic application of the antimicrobial surface treatment
- 3 The Germfree24™ hand sanitiser technology provides extended protection of dry hands from microbial contamination, between regular hand washing opportunities
- 4 Sustained environmental hygiene practises
